

Pockets Of Happiness is filled with delicious recipes for a wide variety of desserts from renowned Chef Judy Koh. Simple step-by-step instructions show you how to whip up tantalising creations. All the secrets for impressive desserts, cakes and baked goods, such as a high fibre chocolate cake shaped like a Cabbage, Tom Yum Baguette and L'ambiance (a popular cake sold at her café), are revealed here. Judy also shares her poems in the book, illuminating the culinary artist's inner world.

Judy is the Managing Director and Principal Chef of Creative Culinaire The School, Caffé Pralet and their in-house bakery, which supplies baked goods to other cafes and hotel kitchens. Judy has 18 years of professional baking experience and is the holder of several bakery record feats, such as The Singapore Book of Records for the Biggest Birthday Cake, the Tallest Christmas Cupcake Tree and The Guinness World Records for the world's Tallest Chocolate Sculpture. She is also the author of several cookbooks and a food judge at bakery competitions. Judy has also been featured countless times in well-known local and overseas food publications. Her forte is in developing recipes and is a sought-after consultant for many Food and Beverage establishments in Singapore and overseas. She was also a nominee for the 2007 Spirit of Enterprise Award.

It is Chef Judy's sincere wish that her recipes will bring you pockets of happiness. She also shares her life experiences through the poems she has written. This book is a celebration of food, love, friendship and life.
